

ATTENTION, EVERYBODY!

IF YOU WANT TO MAKE MONEY VISIT

L. H. FAULKNER & CO.

Their large double store is crowded with New Goods, which were bought on a depressed market, and they are prepared this season to give their many customers better values in Clothing, and Boots and Shoes than ever before. We do not advertise to sell our goods for less than cost, or even cost, but we do guarantee to undersell any competitor who CLAIMS to do so. We do not carry everything and no good assortment of anything, but confine ourselves to our two distinct lines--Clothing, Hats, Trunks, and Gents' Fine Furnishing Goods in one room, and an immense stock of Boots and Shoes in the other. We recognize no competition in either Department, and quote no prices, but ask consumers to call and see for themselves what they can find and how much money they can save at our store. We cordially invite your inspection.

The Reflector.

Official Paper of County and City.

THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1888.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

There are six prisoners confined in the county jail.

The Republicans of the county may rest assured of a complete success next fall.

The county high school will probably not be completed in time for next year's school work.

The handsome corps of teachers at Enterprise had a group picture taken of themselves today in Abilene.

Abilene Daily Reflector, cheapest paper in the city, delivered for ten cents a week. Send in your names.

Herington has a petition in circulation for the erection of a $15,000 school house this summer. It is being generally signed.

Franklin McClure, a resident of Logan township, died Wednesday. The funeral services were conducted yesterday by Rev. Tressell.

Ed. Humphrey and A. Fry are erecting fine residences on Buckeye avenue above Ninth street. They will add much to the already large number of beautiful homes in the north part of the city.

About forty applicants for teachers' certificates are taking the examination at the first ward building today. The questions are much fairer than those of the preceding examination and undoubtedly nearly all will be successful.

The trial of William Zook yesterday for an assault upon one of the Salvation Army members at the barracks Saturday night was at last decided by a verdict of not guilty. The jury was out all the afternoon.

(From Monday's Daily.) One less newspaper in the county. The Clinton Advocate has gone glimmering.

Herington had a meeting Wednesday night to organize a Republican Club. Herington never falls to the rear of the procession.

The house of Mr. John Harbottle rejoices over the arrival of a daughter, born 24th inst. all doing well. (Longmont, Col.) cor. Denver Press.

The death of Franklin McClure, which we briefly mentioned Saturday evening, was somewhat remarkable. The deceased was plowing in his farm and stopped to talk with a neighbor. After a few moments conversation he swayed, tottered and fell. He was taken to the house and died a few moments after.

WEEKLY REFLECTOR, eight large pages, 56 columns, only $1.50 a year--other county papers $2.00--and the Kansas City Journal free for six months.

The Republican convention of the Fifth district met at Junction City yesterday afternoon. A large number of delegates from all sections of the district were in attendance.

Upon their arrival the visitors were met by a band and escorted up town where they were handsomely entertained. The most complete harmony prevailed and everyone seemed willing to laugh over old differences and join hands enthusiastically for the success of the party in the coming campaign.

Upon being called to order at four o'clock, C. W. Banks, of Salina, was made chairman and D. R. Gordon, Abilene, secretary.

The following district committee was appointed: G. M. Stratton, Clay county; B. H. McPherson, Cloud county; G. W. Martin, Davis county; D. R. Gordon, Dickinson county; A. G. AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the appointed time, Chairman Brunson called the convention to order. The first business in order was the reading and adoption of the report of the committee on Credentials.

The committee on Permanent Organization then reported that the temporary organization should be retained. The report was unanimously accepted.

Chairman Brunson in accepting the new honor made a rousing speech, reviewing the records of the great parties of the Nation, especially as regards their respective financial policies.

Especially was this true of the one declaring in favor of Hon. J. R. Burton for delegate-at-large to the National Convention at Chicago.

WHEREAS: The time has come when we are about to enter upon a National Campaign, when the people will be called upon to decide which of the two great parties of the country shall be entrusted the reins of the government for the next four years, it is proper that we, the Republicans of Dickinson county in convention assembled, shall briefly give expression to our views on subjects of vital importance to us as a people. Therefore Resolved, That we affirm our devotion to the principles of the grand old party as enunciated in its National and State platforms;

Resolved, That we are in favor of, and demand, as a fundamental right of American citizens, a free and untrammelled ballot, and a fair and honest count of the same. We denounce the "Louisiana plan" as corrupting its influence upon the body politic and subversion of free government;

Resolved, That we realize how weak and feeble are any words we can utter, and how utterly inadequate are any resolutions we can write to express in suitable and proper terms, the debt of gratitude the nation owes to the defenders of the country. And we note with gratification and pride the disposition of the Republicans in the Congress of the United States to deal fairly and liberally in the matter of pensions with the men to whom we owe so much;

Resolved, That we are in favor of such Legislation as will control and restrain the great corporations of the day, protect home manufactures, home labor, foster and encourage free schools and popular education;

Resolved, That in Hon. John A. Anderson, member of Congress of the Fifth Congressional District of Kansas, we recognize an honest public servant, a statesman of broad and comprehensive views, a man fully alive to the interests of the masses of the people, bold and aggressive, fearless in the discharge of every duty. He has made a record during his service in the House of Representatives that his constituents constantly point to with pride and it sends greeting to the other counties of this congressional district, and hails with supreme satisfaction the assured prospect that Mr. Anderson will be renominated at Junction City on May 1st, 1888, by acclamation, and we hereby instruct the delegates elected here this day to said convention, to support John A. Anderson for renomination;

Resolved, That we earnestly endorse the proposition that the saloon as a factor in politics must be relegated to the rear, and this idea should be embodied in the National Republican platform;

Burton, of Abilene, as their first choice as delegate from the State-at-large to the National Convention at Chicago. And, having in view his special fitness for the position, his labors as "Chairman Anti-Saloon Republican National Committee," we hereby instruct said delegates to support Hon. Albert Griffin, of Manhattan, as second choice for the position of delegate from the State-at-large to the National Convention.

Obituary.

Yesterday, at 11 o'clock, occurred the death of Mrs. F. L. Ball, after a lingering illness of several months, from the dread scourge, consumption.

Mrs. Ball was born in Cambridge, Illinois, April 5, 1858, and was at her death 30 years and 24 days old. Her childhood and girlhood years were spent in Cambridge, and in 1879 she married one of Abilene's most prominent citizens, F. L. Ball, and came here to live immediately after the wedding. Since that time they have been residents of the city and are well known throughout the vicinity. Two lovely daughters have been born to them. For four or five years Mrs. Ball has been unwell and for a month has not been expected to live from day to day.

Yesterday morning she passed quietly away untroubled by the thought of death. All arrangements had been made by her for the funeral and for the disposition of trinkets, etc., to her friends.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the funeral services were held at the home, on Cottage avenue. Rev. Dr. McKeehan preached the sermon; the interment took place in the Abilene cemetery.

Mrs. Ball had hosts of firm friends who loved her not alone for her personal graces but for her noble christian character. Two sisters in Iowa and a brother in California survive her.

We extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband and to otherless daughters, as do the hundreds of others in Abilene who knew and mourn the lost one.

The Republican club held an enthusiastic meeting in the county clerk's office last evening. A full attendance was present.

Rousing speeches were made by O. L. Moore, Col. Dingee, C. C. Bittling and others. The committee on rooms was instructed to secure Armory hall for future meetings of the club.

The next meeting will be in two weeks, in the Armory hall. The club means business and is ready for an aggressive campaign.

An Interesting Wedding.

An interesting marriage took place in the city Sunday by which James Batham, a well-known farmer of New Chillicothe, and Miss Nora Hudson, of Abilene, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. What makes it more than usually noticeable is the fact that the groom's age is 79 and the bride's 22. The happy pair have repaired to the husband's farm to spend the honeymoon.

Baptismal Service.

This morning at 10 o'clock the River Brethren's house of worship was comfortably filled by a highly interested audience, which was present to witness a baptismal service.

A very impressive sermon was preached by Rev. Noah Zook, from Acts viii. He was followed by Elder Engel, of Belle Springs, in a few short remarks bearing especially upon the mode of baptism. The meeting then adjourned to the stone crossing at Mud Creek, above town, where a large crowd witnessed the ceremony as performed by Elder Samuel Zook, of Buckeye. The occasion was one of deep impressiveness upon the assembled multitude. The number of applicants was thirteen.
